(Revised in light of the University Grants Commission (Minimum Standards and Procedure for award of Ph.d. Degree) Regulation 2009 published in the Gazette of India on July, 11, 2009)

General Instructions

1. The Ordinance shall come into force with effect from the date of its notification. With the enforcement of this ordinance, existing ordinance shall be repealed.
2. No Ph.D. scholar shall join any other course/study or appear at any other examination leading to a degree (except Certificate/Diploma course in languages, Research Methodology/Statistics/Computer Application) during the course of his/her Ph.D. programme.
3. A candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy must, at the time of application, hold a Master's degree in the concerned subject with at least 55% Marks (50% for SC/ST/Physically disabled candidates) or an equivalent grade of M.Phil Degree of the university, a deemed university or other university incorporated by any law for the time being in force and recognized by the University.

Provided that a candidate who has at least seven years experience of research/teaching with at least five papers published in standard journals, may be permitted to get registered for Ph.D. degree, even if he/she possesses minimum 50% marks at Master's degree.

4. A candidate shall ordinarily be permitted to work for Ph.D. Degree in the subject in which he/she has obtained his/her Master's Degree.

Provided that research work leading to Ph.D. Degree may be allowed in allied subject of interdisciplinary nature of the same faculty or of allied faculties. In such cases, candidates may be permitted to work under one or two co-supervisors along with the supervisor.

5. Candidates shall be generally admitted through an entrance test followed by an interview.
6. Candidates who are qualified in National Level Test such as NET/GATE etc. and State Level test such as MPSLET, accredited by the UGC on Teacher Fellowship holders or holders of M.Phil Degree through Entrance Test shall be exempted from the entrance test.
7. The university shall annually decide well in advance the number of seats available for Ph.D. programme in each subject. The number of seats, so decided, shall be notified by the university on its website and/or through advertisement in the beginning of every academic year.
8. A supervisor shall not have at any given point of time, more than eight Ph.D. scholars.

Provided that the number of candidates registered with the Co-supervisor shall not be counted for the number of candidates under a supervisor.

Provided further that a person shall not be allowed to supervise more than eight scholars at a given point of time although he/she is registered in more than one subject/discipline/institution.

- 9 While assessing the number of vacancies under a supervisor, the actual date of submission of Ph.D. thesis under his/her supervision shall be taken into account.

10. Procedure of admission

a. In response to the advertisement or notification of the university, candidates desirous of seeking admission to Ph.D. programme shall be required to submit applications on prescribed form obtainable from the university on payment of prescribed fee.
